Hi. I'm Linh!

ENTREPRENEUR, MENTOR, AND SPEAKER

I grew up in Vietnam and migrated to Australia at the age of 9. At just 20, I became a single mum, determined to create a brighter future for my son. In 2009, I started my first eCommerce business to escape the rat race and build a flexible lifestyle so I could be there for him.

That first business taught me the power of outsourcing, but I soon realised I had no passion for eCommerce. In 2011, I shifted gears and launched a successful marketing agency, leveraging offshore staff from overseas.

By 2015, I pivoted again, transforming my agency into a recruitment model and launching Outsourcing Angel. Now, we help business owners hire and work directly with offshore staff also known as Virtual Assistants while making a social impact. With a team of 100, supporting clients worldwide, we donate 10% of company profits to charity initiatives in the Philippines every month.

With over a decade of experience running online businesses, I'm passionate about outsourcing, creating freedom for entrepreneurs, and building a business that serves life—not the other way around.

OUTSOURCINGANGEL

A BUSINESS WITH A SOCIAL PURPOSE

Outsourcing Angel is a social enterprise and an end-to-end outsourcing agency that specialises in matching business owners with highly skilled and reliable Marketing & Admin Remote Staff from the Philippines.

For over 10 years, they've helped hundreds of Australian and International businesses outsource work while giving back to those in need. They live to give and this is why they're one of the best outsourcing companies in Australia.

Beyond providing employment opportunities to developing countries, they also invest 10% of the company profits every month into worthy livelihood projects and charity initiatives.

INTRODUCTION

Through my journey of building Outsourcing Angel and other businesses, I've learned that true success isn't just about financial growth—it's about achieving 360° Success, where business, freedom, and fulfillment align. My mission is to help entrepreneurs realign with their values, systemise their business, and create a life they love. Success should give you more time, not take it away. By sharing my experiences openly, I hope to empower others to scale smart, live with purpose, and achieve success without sacrifice. With faith, perseverance, and the right systems, anyone can build a thriving business and a balanced life.
